Professional Development Bursary for Library Technicians/Library Operations Assistants

- Intent: To use the funds accrued from AALT's term deposit to financially assist a graduate library technician or a student enrolled in either the Library Information Technology (LIT) or the Library Operations Assistant (LOA) Certificate of Achievement Distance Education programs in their professional development efforts.
- Guidelines: The individual must be an LIT or LOA distance education student or a graduate of a recognized library program, as well as an AALT member in good standing. The bursary itself must be used to reimburse an individual who has successfully completed a course that will either assist them in finishing their program of study or provide them with the skills or information necessary for their own professional development. Current AALT Board members are ineligible. The bursary will have a maximum value of $300 and may be given every year
- Submission: Complete both sides of this form which includes an outline of the requestor's specific professional development activity, and a brief biographical sketch including personal and professional goals, and financial need by email to president@aalt.org or by mail to:

AALT PD Bursary Committee
Alberta Association of Library Technicians
PO Box 700
Edmonton, AB T5J 2L4

- Selection: Selection of the recipient will be based on membership status, professional development activity and financial need.
- Recognition: Upon notification of being selected, the recipient shall submit a personal photo and an article about themselves and their professional development activity for publication in the next issue of the AALT Technician
